policymakers and institutions

Tangible civic contribution in one hour

"You're not here to impress. You're here to clarify."

Your Session Feeds a Global Accountability System

Societal Readiness Index(SRI) is a global benchmark measuring societal AI readiness across governance, empowerment, ethics, economics, infrastructure, and foresight.

The Readiness Gap Clock is a public clock tracking how long society has gone without improving AI readiness. It creates pressure. It resets only when readiness improves.

WHO WE'RE LOOKING FOR

What Makes a Strong TownSquare Host

YOU SHOULD BE	NOT A FIT IF
A first-principles thinker Reasons from fundamentals, not trends or jargon	Looking to pitch, sell, or promote a brand
Practically involved Close to the technology—built, deployed, or governed AI	Unable to articulate trade-offs or complexity
Civic-minded Values public understanding over personal platform	Dominates conversations instead of holding them open
Comfortable with tension Can hold disagreement without retreating into performance	Thinks in answers, not questions

"Your job is to hold the civic space, not fill it."
